

Get 100% Cash Visibility in as Few as 12 Weeks

With Bottomline’s Global Cash Management Hub, you can gain a centralized view of all your bank accounts, currencies, subsidiaries, and instruments in as few as 12 weeks. Access this cloud-based SaaS solution through a web browser with no installation or configuration on your own devices required.

Go Live with Help from In-House Pros

In-house implementation experts guide your every step during deployment. With hundreds of hours of hands-on experience and a wealth of institutional knowledge, these pros set you up quickly and ensure you have all the know-how to hit the ground running. No need for external consultants who often drag out the timeline.

Launch with Just What You Need

Want to get better cash insights to start and set up bank fee analysis and trade finance later? No problem. Global Cash Management Hub is a fully scalable, modular solution that grows with you. Pick and choose which functionality you want - add on at any time.

Tap into Pre-Built Integrations

Set up is a breeze thanks to our pre-existing integrations to financial institutions and common ERP systems. Through APIs and file-based connectors, your contracts, bank statements, payments, forecasts, ledger, bank reconciliation, currency rates, notifications, report schedulers, and reference data flows seamlessly into Global Cash Management Hub from the start.

With Bottomline’s Global Cash Management Hub, You Can

Manage the full lifecycle of your cash in one place

Forecast cash more accurately

Optimize liquidity and make more informed decisions

“We chose Bottomline as our partner to enable digital transformation. Partnering with them, we have created a controlled and centralized hub for managing liquidity collaboratively and with a long-term view. And, we established full bank connectivity in just 12 weeks.”
