Bottomline

Connectivity Services

A high-performance connection hub providing access to Swift and other payment networks

Effortlessly Connect and Manage Complex Financial Messaging Tasks

Financial messaging is complex, time-consuming, and highly technical, requiring proactive management to stay ahead of evolving formats and regulatory mandates. Bottomline's Connectivity Services handles the heavy lifting, providing a seamless, single access point to multiple payment networks, systems, and infrastructures—significantly lowering the total cost, increasing efficiencies and maintaining compliance assurance.

Connection happens via our hosted bureaus, allowing you to communicate with all your banking partners using globally standardized financial messages and tailored connectivity options, simplifying infrastructure setup and maintenance. Existing Swift users also have the option to outsource their connectivity services to Bottomline.

- Increase Efficiency, Lower Costs
- Gain Comprehensive Compliance Assurance
- Improve Payments Management
- Proactively Adapt to Changing Formats and Mandates
