 - (e) subject to Clause 11.2 and unless otherwise agreed, each party will promptly return or expunge (or destroy where possible) all of the Confidential Information it has received from the other party, including all copies, reproductions, summaries, analyses or extracts thereof or based thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any obligation to return, destroy or expunge Confidential Information shall not apply to Confidential Information on electronic back-up media which cannot be readily isolated from other information and deleted, and the confidentiality provisions of the Agreement shall continue to apply to any such Confidential Information;

In such circumstances the time for performance shall be extended by a period equivalent to the period during which performance of the obligation has been delayed or failed to be performed. If the period of delay or non-performance continues for at least three (3) months, the party not affected by the Force Majeure Event, may terminate the Order Form(s) affected by the Force Majeure Event by giving fourteen (14) days' written notice to the affected party. In which case no party shall have any liability or obligation to the other party under Order Form(s) affected by the Force Majeure Event other than the payment of monies due.

19.2 Either party shall be permitted to hire any employee of the other party who responds to a genuine general employment advertisement or solicitation.

The Customer shall not assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, subcontract, delegate, declare a trust over or deal in any other manner with any of its rights and obligations under the Agreement without the prior written consent of Bottomline.

20.2 No partnership or agency. Nothing in the Agreement is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between the parties, constitute either party the agent of the other, or authorise either party to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of the other party.

20.3 Entire agreement. The Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes and extinguishes all previous agreements, promises, assurances, warranties, representations and understandings between them, whether written or oral, relating to its subject matter. All terms and conditions in the Customer's purchase orders or confirmations are expressly rejected.

20.4 Waiver. A waiver of any right or remedy under the Agreement or by law is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent right or remedy. A delay or failure to exercise, or the single or partial exercise of, any right or remedy shall not:

(b) if sent by certified or registered mail, on the Business Day that it was signed for as correctly received.

The provisions of this clause shall not apply to the service of any proceedings or other documents in any legal action.

20.7 Third parties' rights. Unless expressly stated otherwise, the Agreement does not give rise to any rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of the Agreement. The rights of the parties to rescind or vary the Agreement are not subject to the consent of any other person.

20.8 Variation. Without prejudice to the Mandatory Terms, Privacy Terms and SLAs, no variation to the Agreement shall be effective unless it is agreed in writing and signed by an authorised representative of the parties.
